Men's rugby team conquers New Brunswick

The Concordia men's rugby team won its two-game playoff series with the New Brunswick university champions last weekend in Fredericton, defeating both the University of New Brunswick and St. Thomas University.

In the first game Saturday, the Stingers met the UNB Varsity Reds, the 1999 Atlantic champions, and prevailed 33-26. Scrumhalf Jason Low was named Concordia's man of the match for his two tries and his efforts to keep the team moving forward.

The following day versus the St. Thomas Tommies, who won the 2000 New Brunswick university championship, the Stingers won 25-24. Rob Imrie, playing in the second row, was named man of the match for his physical play in the scrums. Matt Garston – with a try, two converts, a penalty and a drop goal – was instrumental in the scoring.

The Stingers hope the strong exhibition series will help lay the foundation for an Eastern Canadian championship, featuring the Ontario, Atlantic and Quebec champions, in 2001.

Concordia Athletes of the Week

Lisa-Marie Breton of the women's hockey team and Wayne Alexander of the men's basketball team have been named Concordia Stinger athletes of the week for the period ending Nov. 19.

Breton, a veteran left wing, played solid hockey in Concordia's games versus UQTR and Ottawa last week. She scored Concordia's lone goal in a 3-1 loss to Trois-Rivières on Friday. Then on Sunday, she collected a goal and three assists in the Stingers' 4-2 win over the Gee-Gees. A native of St. Zacharie, Que., Breton, 23, is studying in the Concordia sociology program.

Alexander, a guard, was instrumental in helping the Stingers win two games last weekend and pushing Concordia's conference record to a perfect 4-0. Concordia defeated the RMC Paladins 77-66 last Friday thanks to Alexander's efforts. In a defensive role, he scored just five points but picked up seven assists and seven steals. The following day versus the Queen's Golden Gaels, Alexander collected 21 points, seven rebounds and six assists. He was also an impressive 15 of 16 from the free throw line. The 21-year-old native of Ottawa is studying in the psychology program at Concordia.
